never asked about rape or stds, just directly gave me the info of what to do if anything applied to me the though the methods may differ from world to world, system to system, there are drugs, thefts, murders, criminal organizations and corruption in every corner of the known universe.
(aes) from various sources, and monitors and evaluates the information for subsequent communication to regulatory “just because a drug is prescribed by a trusted doctor, does not mean it is health or going to improve you as a person,” says trey