doses may vary in different species, when the drug is given by a different route or concurrently with other medications, and with regards to a patient's age, breed, and health status it is compounded in 0.125 for small dogs (10 lb) to prevent systemic toxicity, and used at 0.25 for larger dogs